

Dear Scottish Country Dancer,

I would like to personally invite you and your class to the Greensboro Scottish Country Dance Society's annual St. Andrew's Day Dance. The ball will be held Saturday, November 17 from 8:00 PM until midnight at First Presbyterian Church at 617 North Elm St. in Greensboro. This is our 35th St. Andrews Day Dance, and we have prepared a special weekend for you! In honor of our emerald anniversary, Greensboro will be transformed into the Emerald City. If the spirit moves you, feel free to dress in the spirit of Oz! We will have a Friday night ceilidh at the home of Melody and David Glick; an after-dance party at the home of Mary McConnell and Pete Campbell; and a Sunday Brunch at the home of Patty Kinkade.

If you want to start the fun early, come to Stonefield Cellars (www.stonefieldcellars.com) for a concert by Scottish troubadour, Jim Malcolm, on Thursday evening, November 15.

Email me (address below) for our address/directions for the Friday evening ceilidh. Details of the weekend's other events will be available at the dance. Dance walk-throughs will be done Saturday 1:30-3:00 pm at the church.

For this special event, we are bringing musicians Corey Walters, Nora Smith, and Susie Petrov from Massachusetts to compliment a program of old favorites and newer dances. Please see our website for more information on the musicians. We are a warm and welcoming group, and would sincerely love to have you here to share in the festive evening. So click your heels together three times and think to yourself, there's no place like Greensboro for some Scottish Country Dancing!

Sincerely,

David Glick
