

THE TARTAN SONG LYRICS

The Tartan Scottish Folk Song Lyrics

The Tartan

There are hundreds of tartans so lovely to see,
And many a famous has graced the bare knee:
And the sett that I wear is both ancient and braw,
It's the pride o' my heart and the dearest of a'.

Chorus:

Then it's Hey ! for the tartan and Ho ! for the tartan!
The stamp O' the Hielands from Skye to Dundee;
And it's proud I am bearing the tartan I'm wearing,
The pride O' my clan and the tartan for me!

The Mackenzie is noted the Lindsay is grand,
The Gordon's familiar in many a land;
And the Cameron men have a right to be proud,
With the Campbells and Stewarts, MacLeod of MacLeod.

Chorus:

There's the Bruce, the Buchanan, the Frazer and MacBean,
MacDonald, MacMillan, MacPherson and MacNeil,
But I can't name them all and it's no use to try,
So I'll give you "The Tartan from Solway to Skye"!

Chorus:

Aye ! The children of Scotia may roam the world o'er
But their thoughts aye return to the land they adore,
And the skirl o' the pipes sends the heart beating high,
And the tartans of home bring a tear to the eye.

Chorus:
